GILMORE EASY FOR WATSON BUILDING

Penpushers Touched Him Up for Eleven Hits Last Evening.

Little trouble was experienced by the Watson Building last evening in defeating the B. & O., even with Gilmore on the mound. Gilmore was reached for a total of eleven hits and the game ended with the Watsonites leading by a 11-4 score.

Schimmel pitched for the Watson Building and did fine work, allowing just four hits, three of which were made in the fourth inning when the Railroaders scored four runs.

Errors were numerous for the B. & O. and helped pile up the score for the Watsonites. Of the eleven runs scored by the Skycrappers the only earned run came in the first inning when Hood singled and scored on Schimmel's three base hit.

Discouraged by the poor playing of his teammates, Gilmore threw down his glove in the seventh inning after two men were down and refused to pitch to the last man. Boice then went to the mound and pitched only one ball to retire the third man on a foul fly to the catcher.

"Zeke" Davis came in for his share of the hitting last evening getting three safe blows. Chenoweth and Schimmel were the other members of their team to get more than one safe hit. Travis and Shriver were the sluggers of the day for the Railroaders, each getting two hits. The score:

Sport Chatter

By The Onlooker.

Moran's Cincinnati Reds seem to have the edge on the pitching staff but the uncertainty of the game is what makes world series a "standing room only" attraction.

And don't bet your money too freely on the Watson-Glass House game for neither team has the old rag cinched by a long way yet.

And if a left hand twirler pitches against the Watson Building things might take another course, too.

From street talk, the B. & O. will have to run a special to Pittsburgh on October 11 to carry the Fairmont fans to the big W. V. U.-Pitt game.

Gilmore is a good pitcher and showed last night that he was a good quitter—but if you or I were pitching and instead of having the one run they earned, the opposing team had eleven runs, we might throw in the sponge too.

But when a Watsonite had cleaned up the bases with a three base hit, he should have at least thrown the final ball to retire the side.

Watching Gail Boice play short stop reminds me of the good baseball he used to play.

Even in Philadelphia they're talking about the big world series. Philly fans are pulling for Pat Moran and Athletic Bugs are working for Eddie Collins.

Kingmont fans claim they are going to trim Monongah Sunday at Tractor park and declare they will not back down the spout and cancel the game.

TWENTY FIVE MEN OUT FOR HIGH TEAM

Prospects for Good Football Season Here Are Very Bright.

With a squad of twenty-five huskies working diligently for a position on the high school gridiron eleven, local football fans can depend upon a team that will hold its own with the other high school teams of the state.

The twenty-five candidates include the following who are out for the backfield: Brown, Miller, Dean, Curry, Fleming, K. Hall. Candidates for the end positions are, Reich, Troxell, Pellegrini, Hill, Small and E. Hall. Meredith, Esketh and Arnett are out for center and Criss, Williamson, Romino, Rodgers, Carter. Tackle candidates include McNeely, Ash, Raymond, Straight and Jacobs.

Brown, Miller, Fleming and Dean are all making a good showing in the backfield. Pellegrini is a youngster from Monongah who has all the grit in the world, is fast and is making a strong bid for one of the end positions. Captain Hill is sure of a position at one of the extreme positions and Small is another candidate who is fast and who is making a good showing. Criss is a good worker and it will not be surprising to hear of him landing a position as one of the two guards. McNeely is another hard worker and is also fast and would make a good tackle.

Dr. Shively, of the Monongah Glass company, of the University of Pittsburgh, formerly quarterback on the Pitt team, is assisting Coach Kahn in coaching the team. All sorts of stunts were pulled off at the park yesterday evening in the way of carrying and passing the ball. Another hard workout will be held at the park this evening.

PITTSBURGH CLUB WILL PLAY HERE

Manager Rothlisberger is Arranging a Game at Blackshere Park.

Marion county baseball fans will have an opportunity to see the Pittsburgh Pirates in action on a Marion county baseball diamond within the next few weeks, according to an announcement made by Manager Rothlisberger of the Consumer Fuel Company team.

The National League season closes about September 23 and shortly after the season closes, the Pirates will come to Blackshere park for a game or two with the Consumer Fuel company nine. The Consumer team has played about everything in this section of the state that looks like a baseball team this season and are now taking on one of the best National League clubs. Max Carey and Wilbur Cooper of the Pirates are both interested in the Consumer Fuel Company and are partly responsible for bringing the club to Blackshere park.

And the Pirates will find some opposition for Sam Jones, the dark-horse of the 1918 world series, recognized as one of the best twirlers in the American league will likely be in the Consumer line-up to oppose the Pirates. Jones played on the Consumer team last season after the American league schedule concluded. He will be back again this year to play on the baseball team and will take a position in the office of the Consumer Fuel company at Downs.

INDUSTRIAL FAIRMONT

At the new Monongah Glass factory located at Twelfth street about 12 men are busily at work on the tanks. It is particularly hard to get labor here of the right sort. Though there appears to be little actual work necessary save that of standing monitor over the wonderful new machinery here which takes place of human beings in turning out finished glass jars, the type of labor must be above the average. The box factory is running with a good force. The warehouse presents a busy appearance. The moving of the molds and mold racks from number 2 to number 3 building will soon take place. Some new machinery will be purchased and the old location will be turned into a modern machine shop, both floors to be used.

The old original Monongah Glass building called number 1 building may be torn down by spring, according to report. This building is in bad condition and scarcely worth repairing. Only one furnace or tank is being used there.

A new cast iron water main has been built running through the various factory buildings.

In building number 2 the floor has been excavated and concreted and presents a very different appearance. New Foreheart machinery has been installed the same as in the new factory. In this department jars and containers are made though soon other glassware will be made, some of it glazed.

At Sixth street tank number 4 is down as is also number 5 at Seventh street. It has been found advisable not to run as these locations, due to inefficient labor and other causes.

Fifteen tanks at the rear of the Monongah Glass factory will soon be filled with oil in readiness for the winter should natural gas fail.

One tank formerly used for oil at this location is being used for water. The Monongah Company is hoping that there will be more natural gas this winter according to promise. The Lynn gas which supplies the new factory is fairly good gas though it contains a great deal of tar. The factory, however, is getting along on it. Only the new plant is equipped for Lynn so that the other buildings are forced to use natural or oil.

During the last week H. Denniston Monongah Glass agent from La Paz, Bolivia, visited the Fairmont office. Mr. Denniston has built up a nice business for the company in Bolivia. Miss B. Cheney has been added to the force in the foreign department of the Monongah Glass Company.

Several new styles and cuttings in cutglassware have been added to the output of the Monongah people. This department is running very efficiently under the direction of Herman Anderson, who has taken charge in the last two months, coming from a glass factory in Maryland. Mr. Anderson was formerly with the Monongah company about 10 years ago.

The Fairmont Wall Plaster Company is building an elevated siding to their factory to be used in the unloading of material by gravity. The siding will be finished very soon.

The Mining Machinery Company report nothing special of interest. Business is picking up a little at this location.

The Window Glass factory across from the Mining Machinery is running full force. They started August 15th.

CONSUMERS AND IDAMAY SUNDAY

Blackshere Park Will Be Mecca for Many Fans That Day.

An honest-to-goodness one hundred per cent baseball game will take place at Blackshere park Sunday afternoon of this week when the Consumer Fuel company and Idamay baseball teams take the field for the second of their three game series. The game will start promptly at 3 o'clock and one of the record breaking crowds of the season is expected to turn out.

Many Fairmonters who have taken great interest in the Consumer and Idamay teams this season will leave Fairmont on the two o'clock car for Mannington, get off where the crowd does and be at the park in plenty of time for the game.

Idamay and the Consumer team have played but one game this season this being played at Blackshere park a few weeks ago, the Idamay boys winning by a 9-7 score in an eleven inning contest.

Sunday's game is expected to be even better than the game of a few weeks ago. The Consumer team will have the same men in the game which played the McConkey team of Wheeling last Sunday. Just what men will compose the Idamay lineup is not known, but it is understood that Idamay is getting a number of star players for the game.
